

Winter camping weekend at

Camp Moses

Russell, MA

March 19-21, 2010

Please join us for a trip to Camp Moses in Russell, MA. We will be cabin camping, but scouts are again invited to sleep outside in troop tents.

To Bring: Sleeping pad/air mattress, sleeping bag, pillow, layers of clothing including winter jacket, hat and gloves, winter boots (no sneakers or light/mesh hiking shoes!), nylon or waterproof pants (no jeans or sweatpants!), wool or synthetic socks (no cotton socks!), mug for hot drinks, water bottle, snowshoes if you have them (and there is snow on the ground), board games/cards, and, most of all, scout spirit!

If a scout intends to sleep in a tent, he must have a sleeping bag that will keep him warm through the night.

Cost: $20 per scout and leader, due by March 11th troop meeting.

Leaving: 6:30 p.m. Friday, March 19th from Geissler's parking lot.

Returning: Approx. noon on Sunday, March 21st (Scouts will phone parents)
