

Troop 62's February Trip is to the

OPEK Avalanche!

Camp J.N. Webster, Ashford, CT
February 17th-19th, 2012

We will be attending the OPEK winter camping event at JN Webster. The Hockanum River district has many fun winter activities scheduled.

We will have the opportunity to sleep in tents, and we have a cabin as a backup for those who do not want to sleep in the cold. All scouts intending to sleep outside will be required to have their equipment evaluated for cold weather camping.

We will be cooking as a troop. As usual, all scouts must bring their own mess kits (plate/bowl, utensils and cup).

Leaving: 6:30 pm Friday, February 17th from Geissler's parking lot

Return: Sunday, February 19th at approx. noon to Geissler's

Cost: Troop 62 Scouts, parents and leaders: $25 each

Signups and payments due February 9th
