

What should my son pack for summer camp?

The following will not be allowed in camp for any reason: cellphones, fireworks, sheath knives, bows and arrows, slingshots, or chairs (for storage reasons.)

Radios, CD /MP3 players, laptops, electronic games, or other electronic devices, may be brought in the car but are NOT allowed in camp.

Any offending or banned items confiscated will remain so until arrival back home.

Please do not pack snacks

Packed to go to camp	Check list for the boys when packing (MAKE SURE TO PUT YOUR NAME OR INITIALS ON YOUR ITEMS)
	Class A uniform on hanger with all badges of rank, and his Order of the Arrow sash, if he is a member.
	A lockable foot locker or storage locker to store your items; waterproof, approximate measurements: 3' X 1.75' X 1.5' The lock combination written on index card or two keys: One on lanyard or wrist chain and one to give to adult in charge of extra keys (Labeled please)
	Footwear: sneakers, waterproof hiking boots, and flip flops to wear into the shower (No open toed sandals allowed in camp with out socks)
	Shirts: 6 shirts, wear a Class B if you have one, plus 5 other shirts. Bring one long sleeve shirt.
	Pants / Shorts: 5 pairs plus At least one pair of long pants. The convertible scout or other convertible pants are great!
	Outerwear: Sweatshirt (It may get cool at night) , Rain jacket or poncho (This item could make a difference in the scouts attitude on a rainy day)
	Underwear packed in bags above or in one single bag, (nobody likes wet underwear)
	Socks: 5 plus at least two extra pair (Most commonly lost item in camp)
	Swim suit: Not shorts or underwear that look like swim trunks
	Hat: (2) One to wear and one to lose
	Sleep wear: T shirt and gym shorts or whatever makes you comfortable
	Towels (Two); One to be wet and drying and one to use. Also maybe a hand towel and facecloth to take to sink for hand/face washing .
	Hygiene / Toiletries: Soap, toothbrush, toothpaste, shampoo,
	The Six outfits can be individually packed in zip lock bags or placed in an oversized zip loc bag (rain protection) A dry scout is a happy scout!
	Bedding
	Mattress Cover, Twin size fitted sheet and flat sheet (Not mom's new sheets)
	Sleeping bag or two blankets
	Pillow and pillow case: if one will help you sleep better
	Mosquito netting(bar) : helps you sleep bug free
	3-4 foot x ¼ to 3/8 dowels (4 of them)
	4 tennis balls or 4 empty plastic bottles space blanket : foil emergency blanket

Working Gear
	Your Boy Scout Handbook
	Notebook/pencil: 3 envelopes addressed to your parents with stamps
	Net bag to store dirty clothes. NOT plastic bag or your locker will really smell
	Nylon line for hanging up clothes
	Popcorn Tin or large coffee container to keep things dry
	Duct tape
	Deck of cards
	Tote n chip if you plan on carrying pocket knife or are taking Woodcarving merit badge.(T & C course offered at camp.)
	Flashlights
	Batteries (extra / in addition to those in flashlights.
	Water bottle (Drink at least two bottles of water a day)
	Disposable camera
	Sunglasses
	Insect repellent
	Sun screen, remember to apply daily
	Sting medicine if prescribed, Sting-ease type, if not.
	Cup with plastic lid that can be attached with string for bug juice
	A Carabineer or two
	A Watch: This item will keep you on time and out of trouble
	Pocket first aid kit: Basic, Full medical supplies available in nurses hut.
Optional
	Fishing equipment, no live bait!
	Compass unless taking Wilderness Survival MB
	One set of fun pajamas for pajama day at breakfast (the crazier the better)
	Refer to Things to remember before summer camp document on website for a time line of events.

On the day we leave, please carry a backpack with the following supplies: swim suit, towel, hat, poncho, water bottle, bug spray, sting medicine (if prescribed or Sting-ease type if not) (We will be taking our swim test upon arrival at camp and may not have access to your trunk)